OTAVALO, PEGUCHE WATERFALLS & COTACACHI DAY TOUR

Early in the morning departure from Quito in direction NORTH to reach the Province of Imbabura through the central valleys, fertile areas for agriculture, livestock and rose plantations.

The indigenous market of Otavalo is one of the most interesting in Ecuador. Its exceptional offer and its cultural relevance make it fascinating.

We will visit its original square of ponchos, an amazing labyrinth of colors, handicrafts, armadillo charangos, paintings, toquilla straw hats, ponchos, tapestries, ceramics, wood carvings, etc., countless articles offered by the indigenous people themselves.

Continue to Las Cascadas de Peguche is a wonderful tourist site in Otavalo and its surrounding area. Because of the cleansing baths taken here a few days before the Inti Raymi ceremony, this majestic 50-foot waterfall is classified as an indigenous Ceremonial Site.

After lunch continue to Cotacachi, one of the Magical Towns in Ecuador selected by the Ministry of Tourism, this is a small, hidden town in the hills just south of Ibarra and north of Otavalo.

Many visitors come to Cotacachi for its great artisanal markets. Some of the best leatherworkers in Ecuador reside in this town—intricately crafted wallets, shoes and gloves can be bought here for a bargain price.
